Sunshine Week 2018

The resolution in support of Sunshine Week was approved by the West Bloomfield Township Board on February 5 and will be considered by the Keego Harbor City Council on February 13 and the Sylvan Lake City Council on February 14.

Periodical Review

AT&T added 368 thousand DirecTV Now subscribers in the fourth quarter of 2017, pushing subscribership to the streaming service to 1.15 million. The company lost over 200 thousand subscribers to its wired cable service, U-verse, and its satellite service, DirecTV.

A national survey regarding streaming services shows that nearly half of respondents are willing to pay up to 20 dollars a month for those services. Forty percent of Americans have no plans to stream anything, citing delays and buffering as the reason.

Communication

No communication was received.

Preview

The Executive Director presented his agenda for the time period between this meeting and the next.

Mrs. Macon suggested that the Finance Committee consider a contingency plan for damage to or destruction of Green Media Center.

Mr. Krause noted the role that amateur radio could play in the dissemination of emergency information.

9. Unfinished Business

No items of Unfinished Business were presented.

10. New Business

Committee Appointments

The Chairperson noted that there is a vacancy on the Commission Operations and Strategic Planning Committee for a Sylvan Lake representative and a vacancy on the Finance Committee for a West Bloomfield representative.
